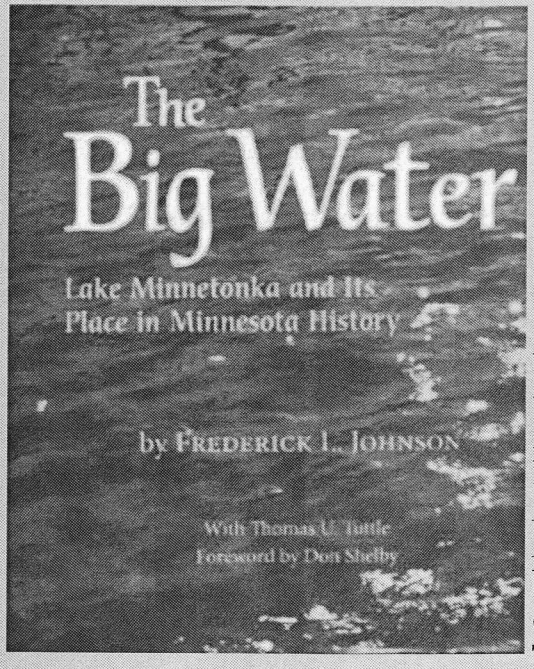
DEEPHAVEN
~EST. 1900~

Deephaven Historical Society Newsletter

Fall 2014



Please Join Us On Our DHS Fall Cruise On Sunday, October 5th from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. on the Lady of the Lake. We'll board at the Excelsior City Dock. Check in at 2:30 p.m.

Our featured speaker is Frederick L. Johnson former teacher in the St Paul Schools and was associate editor & former reporter for the Washington County Bulletin. Fred is the author of ten books and numerous magazine articles on Minnesota history. He'll talk on topics from his latest book on Lake Minnetonka: The Big Water, Lake Minnetonka and Its Place in Minnesota History. The Big Water is a wonderful coffee table book on the history of Lake Minnetonka broken down into six major times in the lakes' history. Topics Fred will cover on our cruise are:

- James J. Hill torpedoes the Lake Minnetonka Navigation Co.
- Lake of Tragedy: The Rand family and Widney drownings.
- "The Lords of the Lake Minnetonka Road," circa 1909
- The "Summer Girls": Rebels against Victorianism

Please Call Nan Nicolle at 952-473-3682 for reservations. Members: $10 Non-Members $15.

Lets Hope for beautiful weather!